adopted, then we will be talking about those activities engaged in by people presumably mature enough to understand the dangers involved and are willing to assume the risk as far as allowing the coach to not be responsible for his or her negligence that results in injury. But without this amendment, you are saying that our children do not have to be protected, that it's more important to let adults play like their coaches than it is to make sure that our children are turned over to people who are going to be responsible and required by the laws of this state to exercise ordinary care and prudence to prevent a foreseeable injury to those children from occurring.   That is not an unreasonable burden.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Your time is up, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I hope you will adopt the amendment.

SENATOR LABEDZ: We are voting on the Senator Chambers' amendment to the committee amendments. All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I will ask for a call of the house.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Call of the house has been requested. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Mr. Clerk, record.

CLERK: 13 ayes, 1 nay, Madam President, to go under call.

SENATOR LABEDZ: The house is under call.   All members please return to their seats.   Record your presence.   The house is under call.   All members please return to the Chambers and record your presence.   Senator Korshoj, Senator Haberman, Senator Lamb, the house is under call.   We are looking for Senator Scofield, Senator Wehrbein.   Senator Warner, please record your presence.   Senator Korshoj and Senator Chambers, Senator Scofield. Mr. Clerk, call the roll.

CLERK: (Roll call vote read. See page 973 of the Legislative Journal.) 10 ayes, 33 nays, Mr. President.

SENATOR LABEDZ: The amendment fails.   We are back on the committee amendments.   I'm sorry, there's another amendment to the committee amendments. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Madam President, Senator Chambers would move to amend the committee amendments. (Read the Chambers amendment as found
